This is no ordinary cruise ship neighborhood, this is a sunken sanctuary of underwater personalities, glowing grottos, and thrill rides that defy imagination - and the laws of gravity. Equal parts tropical escape and under-the-sea thrill, The Forgotten Reef invites adventurers of every age to dive headfirst into the unknown-- where every cocktail holds a story, every ride dares you to scream, and every corner hides a wink, a whisper, or a watery surprise.

Whether you are seeking pulse-pounding thrills, treasure-strewn lounges, or undersea marvels, you'll find them all in The Forgotten Reef - a place where legends descend, and guests rise.

Plunder Falls

Legends tell of a pirate haven that holds myth and mystery in its booty-filled wake. Plunder Falls, the first-ever Immersive Waterfall Lounge at sea is an awe-inspiring cascade that towers above the deck, its crystal-clear waters tumbling down its rugged, rock structures. The soothing sounds of the waterfall create a serene ambiance, offering guests a tranquil retreat from the bustling activities elsewhere on the ship. Surrounded by comfortable loungers, Plunder Falls not only serves as both a visual masterpiece and a refreshing oasis where guests can unwind and rejuvenate, but also a pirate's story ripe for adventurer's to explore... If you stay long enough, you might even hear a pirate crew toasting to their next plunder!

Plunder Falls Grotto

Some say that this grotto was carved out of the falls by pirate crews of legends. Concealed behind the falls, guests can swim up into the first immersive waterfall lounge at sea. As the grotto transitions from water to land, patrons discover a warm, wood-planked hideaway with a lively, sea-faring spirit. Behind the bar, expert mixologists serve up a spirited menu of tropical tiki cocktails and bold rum-based concoctions.

The grotto hums with tropical energy, flickering torchlight reflects off rum bottles and golden coins embedded into the wooden bar top. Overhead, netting, seashell garlands, and glowing lanterns hang from ship beams salvaged and repurposed by the original crew who first claimed this hidden lair as their stash spot. In true pirate fashion, treasure chests overflowing with glittering "booty" are proudly displayed in alcoves, flanked by ceremonial tiki totems believed to guard the gold—and the grog. The carvings, each with their own distinct personality, were etched and painted by pirates long gone—but not forgotten. They might even whisper a pirate's tale as they interact with adventurers alike!

Crown's Descent

There are already plenty of thrill rides at sea, but there is only one that throws you off the side of a moving ship. Crown's Descent is the world's first drop coaster at sea. Positioned all twenty decks above the ocean's surface and nestled just behind the ship's iconic crown insignia, this one-of-a-kind attraction launches guests out over the ship's edge aboard a gleaming, custom-designed ride vehicle inspired by the elusive lookdown fish—known for its sleek, silvery body and ghostlike movement through the water. With its reflective surfaces and streamlined shape, the ride vehicle mirrors the fish's natural beauty while hinting at the wild experience ahead.

As the vehicle teeters and plunges in a series of suspenseful, gravity-defying drops above the open sea, guests are treated to breathtaking panoramic views, heart-pounding thrills, and the surreal sensation of floating above the horizon. Surrounded by oceanic theming and shimmering light effects, Crown's Descent combines the ocean's elegance with white-knuckle thrills. On Crown's Descent, your stomach flips, you dangle over the open sea, and just for one impossible moment – it feels like you're flying.

Murray's Fang & Fin & Eel-lectric Avenue

Tucked deep inside a shadowy sea cave at the edge of The Forgotten Reef, Murray's Fang & Fin is a lively, rum-soaked retreat filled with mischief, music, and maritime charm. The cool stone walls echo with laughter and sea-shanties, while flickering lanterns, ropes, and nautical trinkets line the walls. Crates stamped with old merchant markings and driftwood beams overhead hint at a pirate hideout long used for celebration.

Coiled within a rum barrel, is Murray—the quick-witted animatronic moray eel with a signature toothy grin and enough charisma to run a whole crew. Murray is not alone: his rat-pack of eel pals—“That's a Moray”, each have their own musical talent and mischievous personality. The merry band roasts the guests, tests their pirate trivia skills, and belts out sea shanties loud enough to make a jellyfish blush. It's a bar, a raucous band of buddies, and a rum-filled cavern of eel-themed fun.

Just outside of the cave's arched entrance lies Murray's pride and joy: his Bioluminescent Mini Golf course, Eel-lectric Avenue. This vibrant, reef-inspired course delights guests by day and transforms into a glowing underwater wonderland by night. Featuring interactive eel-themed obstacles, UV-reactive paths, glowing golf balls, and immersive fiber-optic coral, players experience the thrill of snorkeling by sunlight and the enchantment of night diving beneath the waves. Murray's voice drifts in from hidden speakers throughout, adding jokes, pirate trivia, and plenty of encouragement (and sass) along the way!

Hammerhead Launch Slides

For seekers of treasure and thrills-alike, the pirate crew of Plunder Falls created a rite of passage – a plunge into shark infested waters to reach their secret cavern filled with plunder. The Hammerhead dueling launch slide offers an adrenaline-pumping adventure that is both exhilarating and awe-inspiring. Designed to resemble the distinctive hammerhead shark, the launch platform itself resembles the formidable presence of this ocean predator, sitting eerily behind worthy adventurers as they don their slide floats. As you prepare for the ride, anticipation builds before you're simultaneously propelled into the twisting and turning enclosed tubes. Throughout the descent, translucent sections reveal dynamic, shadowy projections of sharks swimming alongside you, creating the spine-tingling sensation of navigating through shark-infested waters. The competitive element adds to the excitement, as riders race side by side to see who can reach the splashdown pool first, making it a must-try attraction for those seeking a heart-racing experience. It's jaws vs. adventurer in your race to the loot – and the sharks are always watching.
